

Central State commuters offered chance to carpool

Earth Temple, a local service organization, was organized and founded by Anthony Hodge. Hodge is a 1976 graduate of Central State University. He is a criminologist and private investigator. He was a commuter when he attended Central State. His business and family was centered in Columbus, but Hodge felt that he greatly benefitted from attending Central State.

Earth Temple is recruiting volunteer students, non-students and their families to coordinate a carpool of commuters from central Ohio and for those commuters to meet at the Mt. Vernon Plaza and go to the Central State campus in Wilberforce, Ohio. For more information, contact Earth Temple at 231-5595, P.O. Box 272100, Columbus, Ohio 43227.

Earth Temple has organized a Kwanzaa/Christmas toy drive since 1990. The organization has given out over $100,000 worth of books, clothes and toys on Christmas Eve each year at various locations. Earth Temple has also organized rallies and free drug prevention counseling for its program "Get Off Drugs" (G.O.D.).

The organization produces a program entitled "Earth Temple Speaks Out." The show airs weekly on cable's ACTV 21.
