

location, time was spent at the Don Scott Field, which was the location where the youth were given plane rides.

Earth Temple Inc. sponsored this event, but they had the assistance of many selfless volunteers. Special recognition goes to Dr. Michael R. Bean Sr., pastor of the St. Paul A.M.E. Church, Dr. Evelyn Luckey, Herman Ringer and Ringer Limousine Service, Keith Edwards and the Young Eagles Flying Club, John Parsino, pilot and the law firms and other investigative agencies that sow into the ministry of this organization.

Dr. Anthony Hodge is the founder and CEO of Earth Temple Inc. and is the spearhead for Project Ho, Ho, Ho. As America's first Black nationally advertised private detective, he established this nonprofit organization to enhance the lives of youth in the city of Columbus.

Currently, Hodge is a senior seminary student at Payne Theological Seminary, in Wilberforce, Ohio, where his studies include "how to find witnesses for Christ."

In addition, he aides Project Ho, Ho, Ho by providing the foundational seed money Earth Temple Inc.

Earth Temple Inc. not only focuses on providing life experiences for youth during the holiday season, but throughout the entire year. Currently, they Pilot Rick Hunt stands with some Southside students who enjoyed a plane during the holiday season.

Project Ho, Ho, Ho extended Christmas cheer by sponsoring plane rides for local youths. These students from the Linden area take a ride with pilot John Parsio.

